

Name

Date

Biology

The Royal Botanical Garden

Multiple Choice

For each question, select the best answer from the four alternatives.

1. The title of this selection does not refer to
 - a) the reason RBG was founded.
 - b) The reason people volunteer at RBG.
 - c) the reason people work at RBG.
 - d) the reason the author wrote the article.
2. In the first paragraph, the author used lots of numbers in order to
 - a) explain where RBG is.
 - b) impress the reader with the size and scope of RBG.
 - c) be sure to get the facts about RBG correct.
 - d) avoid a complaint or lawsuit from RBG.
3. In grafting, a branch from one tree is attached to
 - a) another tree.
 - b) The root of another tree.
 - c) the root of the same tree.
 - d) a bush.
4. The Royal Botanical Garden
 - a) is staffed by both employees and volunteers.
 - b) does not admit tourists.
 - c) is the only place in Canada that the bashful bulrush grows.
 - d) is planning to start a public education campaign.

Short Answer

Write the main idea of this selection and three details that support it.

5. _____
- _____
- _____
- _____

The Royal Botanical Garden

Multiple Choice

For each question, select the best answer from the four alternatives.

- The title of this selection does not refer to
 - the reason RBG was founded.
 - The reason people volunteer at RBG.
 - the reason people work at RBG.
 - the reason the author wrote the article.
- In the first paragraph, the author used lots of numbers in order to
 - explain where RBG is.
 - impress the reader with the size and scope of RBG.
 - be sure to get the facts about RBG correct.
 - avoid a complaint or lawsuit from RBG.
- In grafting, a branch from one tree is attached to
 - another tree.
 - The root of another tree.
 - the root of the same tree.
 - a bush.
- The Royal Botanical Garden
 - is staffed by both employees and volunteers.
 - does not admit tourists.
 - is the only place in Canada that the bashful bulrush grows.
 - is planning to start a public education campaign.

Short Answer

Write the main idea of this selection and three details that support it.

- Royal Botanical Gardens is a beautiful and important institution.

1) RBG helps preserve Canada's natural habitats and threatened species. 2) It is home to more than 1100 species of plants. 3) RBG is Canada's focal point for the Global Strategy for Plant Conservation.